SECOND AMENDED COMPLAINT — CLASS ACTION

29 Plaintiffs David Hough, Amund Thompson, Isabel Ramos and Anthony
30 Ramos, and Michael Nibarger (collectively, "Plaintiffs" or "Class Representatives"), 31 individually and on behalf of others similarly situated, by and through their attorneys,
32 bring this class action complaint against the following Defendants: (1) Ryan Carroll;
33 Max K. Day; Max O. Day; Michael Day; Jared Day; Matthew Crouch; Christine
34 Carroll; Troy Marchand; Bonnie Nichols; Travis Marker; and Reyhan Pasinli

(collectively, the “Human Defendants”); (2) Yax Ecommerce LLC; Precision Trading Group, LLC; WA Distribution LLC; Providence Oak Properties, LLC; WA Amazon Seller LLC; and Yax IP and Management Inc.; (collectively, the “Wealth Assistants Entity Defendants” or “Wealth Assistants”); (3) MKD Investment Advisor, LLC; MKD Family Beneficiary, LLC; MKD Family Private Management Company, LLC; Max Day Consulting, LLC; HouTex Farm Equity Partners LLC; Business Financial Solutions Advisory LLC; Evo Maxx LLC; Dreams To Reality LLC; and WWKB LLC (collectively, the “Alter Ego Defendants”); (4) Proficient Supply LLC; (5) Quantum Ecommerce, LLC; and Wholesale Universe, Inc. (collectively, the “Quantum-Wholesale Partnership”); and (6) The Law Office of Travis R. Marker, a Professional Corporation (d.b.a. “Marker Law and Mediation”); Parlay Law Group, A Professional Corporation; Total-Apps, Inc.; Wells Fargo Bank, N.A.; Bank of America; and First Citizens Bancshares, Inc. (collectively, the Payment Processing Defendants”). Plaintiffs allege as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. Plaintiffs invoke the diversity jurisdiction of the Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1332(d) because: (1) at least one Plaintiff in this putative class action resides in a different state from at least one defendant, (2) there are more than 100 putative class members, and (3) there are more than $5 million in controversy.

- 1 2. Venue is proper in this district under 28 U.S.C. § 1391 because Plaintiff
2 Michael Nibarger has resided in Los Angeles County at all times relevant to 3 this dispute.
- 5 3. Personal Jurisdiction over the Wealth Assistants Entity Defendants is proper
6 because they purposely defrauded many California residents, collecting over 7 $1,000,000 from those residents.
- 9 4. Moreover, until at least May of 2022, Wealth Assistants was located in 10 California according to its Bank of America account statements. Wealth
11 Assistants' CEO, Defendant Ryan Carroll, frequently resided in California and 12 operated the company in California.
13
- 14 5. Personal Jurisdiction over the Human Defendants, the Quantum-Wholesale 15 Partnership, and the Payment Processing Defendants is proper because they 16 conspired with the Wealth Assistants Entity Defendants and others to defraud
17 individuals across the country. Carrying out that conspiracy included—
18 foreseeably—intentionally defrauding dozens of California residents out of 19 more than $1,000,000.
20
- 21 6. Moreover, the Human Defendants, the Quantum-Wholesale Partnership, and 22 the Payment Processing Defendants all knew or should have known that 23 Wealth Assistants' conspiracy to conceal assets was centered in California. In 24 particular, Christine Carroll—Wealth Assistants' Finance Manager—resided in 25 and worked in California at all times relevant to this dispute. Furthermore,
26
28

1 Total Apps—which, upon information and belief, directed and planned the
2 scheme to conceal assets—was headquartered in and did business in California
3 at all times relevant to this dispute.

5 7. Personal Jurisdiction over the Alter Ego Defendants and Proficient Supply
6 LLC is proper because they are the alter egos of other defendants who are
7 subject to personal jurisdiction in California, as described in more detail below.

9 8. The Quantum-Wholesale Partnership is subject to personal jurisdiction in 10 California for the additional reason that it intentionally made misstatements to 11 many California residents, including some Plaintiffs, in furtherance of the 12 conspiracy’s aim to defraud those residents and fraudulently transfer the assets
13 Wealth Assistants had stolen from them. For example, the Quantum-Wholesale
14 Partnership intentionally sent emails to many California residents telling
15 them—falsely—that Wealth Assistants had purchased valuable inventory 16 packages for those residents.

19 9. Personal Jurisdiction over Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. is proper because it is 20 headquartered in California.

22 10. Personal Jurisdiction over Bank of America is proper because it opened and 23 operated Wealth Assistants LLC bank accounts that are the subject of this
24 complaint in California.
26
27
28

1 11. Personal Jurisdiction over First Citizens BancShares is proper because it
2 knowingly participated in Wealth Assistants' scheme to conceal assets from
3 creditors, which was a scheme centered in California.

5 12. Furthermore, from May of 2022 through September of 2023, First Citizens
6 processed wire transfers totaling more than $29 million from Providence Oak
7 Properties (one of the Wealth Assistants Entity Defendants) to banks located in 8 California.

10 13. First Citizens also maintains many branch locations in California.

11
12 SUMMARY OF CASE

13 14. Wealth Assistants is a fraudulent scheme perpetrated by the Day family: Max
14 K. Day, Max O. Day, Michael Day, and Jared Day. They are career criminals
15 who have perpetrated similar schemes for decades, stealing hundreds of 16 millions of dollars from their victims.

18 15. Wealth Assistants obtained more than $50 million by defrauding more than 19 600 individuals.

21 16. Specifically, Wealth Assistants advertised that it would provide its clients with 22 substantial income by setting up and managing lucrative online Amazon stores
23 that the clients would own. But Wealth Assistants did not provide the promised
24 services. Instead, it used the fees it collected from Plaintiffs and its other
25 clients for the benefit of the Human Defendants.
28

1 17. Wealth Assistants' clients would pay it an upfront fee of up to $125,000 to set
2 up an online Amazon store in the client's name and manage it. After that, the 3 client would pay for the store's inventory, along with certain other smaller fees.
4 In return, the individual would be entitled to collect between 50 percent and 70
5 percent of the online store's gross profits.

7 18. Wealth Assistants advertised that the profits of an online store it managed
8 should grow to more than $10,000 per month by the end of the store's first 9 year.

11 19. Hundreds of individuals purchased the business opportunity Wealth Assistants
12 offered. Most of these purchasers were middle class, and many had to use all 13 their retirement savings or take out home equity loans to make the purchase.

15 20. Wealth Assistants never intended to follow through on its promises.
16

17 21. Some of Wealth Assistants' clients never even received an online store after 18 paying the fee. Others received stores (which themselves are valueless and can 19 be easily and freely set up), but their stores were never stocked with any 20 inventory. Others paid Wealth Assistants for inventory after receiving 21 inventory invoices from Wealth Assistants that turned out to be fake; the 22 inventory never actually appeared in their stores.
23

24 22. Ultimately, the vast majority of Wealth Assistants' clients have received less
25 than $10,000 in profits from their online stores, and many never received a 26 single dollar of revenue from their stores (if they received stores at all).

1 23. Wealth Assistants perpetuated its fraudulent enterprise for as long as it could.

2 When Plaintiffs and other individuals complained, Wealth Assistants invented
3 excuses. It blamed “supply chain disruption,” for example. It asked its clients
4 for patience.

6 24. Eventually, however, Plaintiffs and other individuals realized that they had
7 been defrauded. Many of Wealth Assistants’ clients demanded their money
8 back, complained to their banks, or alerted government agencies about the 9 ongoing fraud.

11 25. Realizing that its fraud was being exposed, Wealth Assistants shut down. In 12 October of 2023, Wealth Assistants announced to all of its clients that it was 13 going out of business. The announcement told Plaintiffs that they would not
14 receive further services and would not receive their money back.

17 26. Throughout this fraudulent scheme, instead of using the money collected from 18 Wealth Assistants’ clients to provide the promised services, Wealth Assistants 19 used much of the money it collected from its clients for the benefit of the 20 Human Defendants. For example, Wealth Assistants’ CEO, Ryan Carroll, has
22

23 27. Proficient Supply LLC is an entity that operated a scam nearly identical to 24 Wealth Assistants’ scam beginning in 2020, before Wealth Assistants ever
25 existed. Proficient Supply was shut down by the Federal Trade Commission in 26 2022, but a few months later, it was acquired by Wealth Assistants. Thereafter, 27
28

1 as part of Wealth Assistants, it accepted payments from the Wealth Assistants
2 Entity Defendants in transactions that served the sole purpose of helping
3 Wealth Assistants conceal assets. Because of the intermingled assets, common
4 ownership, and lack of distinct operations, Proficient Supply LLC is another
5 alter ego of the Wealth Assistants Entity Defendants.

7 28.The Quantum-Wholesale Partnership Defendants—led by Defendants Troy
8 Marchand and Bonnie Nichols—worked for Wealth Assistants and helped it
9 carry out its fraudulent scheme. They also helped Wealth Assistants conceal its 10 assets from Defendants by accepting fraudulent transfers totaling more than $1
11 million in the months before Wealth Assistants went out of business.
12

13 29.Defendant Travis Marker—acting through his two law offices, Defendant Law
14 Office of Travis R. Marker and Defendant Parlay Law Group—served as an 15 “escrow agent” to help Wealth Assistants conceal the proceeds of its fraudulent
16 scheme. In particular, Travis Marker shipped credit card readers to many of 17 Wealth Assistants’ clients for those clients to pay Wealth Assistants by making
18 small discrete payments into different credit card readers. Those payments
19 went to Travis Marker’s “escrow account,” and he would then pass those 20 payments from the escrow accounts to undisclosed Wealth Assistants bank
21 accounts, which helped prevent Plaintiffs from recovering the money that 22 Wealth Assistants stole from them.
25
26
27
28

1 30. Defendant Bank of America operated bank accounts held by Wealth Assistants
2 and Defendant Ryan Carroll. Bank of America quickly realized that Defendant
3 Ryan Carroll was using those bank accounts to perpetrate a fraud because of 4 blatant red flags, and in November of 2022, Bank of America froze some of 5 those bank accounts. But instead of making efforts to return those funds to the 6 individuals the funds had been stolen from, Bank of America simply wrote a
7 cashier's check to Wealth Assistants for more than $3.7 million so that it could
8 conceal that money elsewhere. Even more egregiously, Bank of America
9 continued operating many bank accounts held by Defendant Ryan Carroll after 10 it had frozen Wealth Assistants' accounts, and Bank of America continued
11 helping Ryan Carroll conceal the proceeds of the Wealth Assistants fraudulent
12 scheme.
14
15
16

17 31. Defendant Reyhan Pasinli is the owner and operator of Defendant Total Apps.
18 Pasinli and Total Apps orchestrated Wealth Assistants' Payment Processing 19 Strategy (which, as explained below, aimed to conceal the proceeds of the 20 fraudulent scheme and avoid money-laundering detection) by helping Wealth
21 Assistants set up merchant bank accounts, recruiting other merchants to use
22 their bank accounts in furtherance of Wealth Assistants' Payment Processing
23 Strategy, and serving as the "gateway" for transactions involving the various 24 merchant accounts controlled by Wealth Assistants. Pasinli has long helped the
26
27
28

1 Day family defendants conceal the proceeds of their various fraudulent
2 schemes, and he knew that Wealth Assistants was a fraudulent scheme.

3 32.Total Apps is a registered independent sales organization of Wells Fargo Bank
4 and, upon information and belief, Total Apps acted as Wells Fargo's agent
5 when it orchestrated Wealth Assistants' Payment Processing Strategy.

7 Therefore, Wells Fargo is vicariously liable for Total Apps' participation in the 8 fraudulent scheme.

10 33.Even if Total Apps were not associated with Wells Fargo, Wells Fargo would 11 still be liable because it knowingly operated many Wealth Assistants bank
12 accounts despite knowing of Wealth Assistants' plan to fraudulently disperse
13 its assets and conceal them from creditors.

15 34.First Citizens Bank knowingly operated a bank account for Providence Oak
16 Properties, one of the Wealth Assistants Entity Defendants. First Citizens knew
17 that the Providence Oak Properties bank account was being used for money
18 laundering because—although Providence Oak Properties was purportedly a
19 construction company—each of the wire transfers out of the Providence Oak
20 Properties bank account explained that Providence Oak Properties was simply 21 accepting transfers of cash and then wiring the cash back to the sender after 22 deducting a fee. First Citizens Bank also did not keep records of the millions of 23 dollars in transfers of money into the First Citizens Bank account.

FACTS

A. Wealth Assistants’ Misrepresentations About Its Services

76. The following is a summary of Wealth Assistants’ agreements with its clients, including Plaintiffs:

- a. Wealth Assistants' clients would pay it to set up an online store on the Amazon platform that the clients would own. These stores offered goods for shoppers to purchase online.
- b. Wealth Assistants' clients would pay for the online store's inventory.
- c. Wealth Assistants' clients were required to pay certain other fees, such as annual fees and a "success fee" when the store was successfully set up.
- d. Wealth Assistants would manage the store, including by providing customer service, maintaining relationships with suppliers, and managing the inventory.
- e. Wealth Assistants' clients would keep between 50 percent and 70 percent of the gross profits generated by the stores, and Wealth Assistants would take the remaining profits for itself as a management fee.

77. When purchasing the business opportunities at issue, Wealth Assistants' clients signed standardized contracts that Wealth Assistants drafted. The contracts promised that, in return for Plaintiffs' investment, Wealth Assistants would deliver Plaintiffs an Amazon retail store that would be built and operated by Wealth Assistants, without significant efforts from Plaintiffs.

78. The contracts contained numerous false statements. For example, the contracts stated that Wealth Assistants' goal was for Plaintiffs to receive around $10,000

1 or more of profits monthly from their store by the end of the store's first year
2 of operations. The contracts also listed sophisticated operational services that
3 Wealth Assistants would provide to ensure that the stores flourished.

5 79. Wealth Assistants knew that nobody planned to provide Wealth Assistants'
6 clients with the full set of services Wealth Assistants was promising in the 7 contracts. For example, Wealth Assistants knew that it did not have a goal of 8 generating $10,000 of monthly profit in its clients' stores. Wealth Assistants 9 knew that it instead intended to neglect its clients' stores (if it provided the 10 clients with stores at all) so that the stores would generate little or no revenue.

13 80. The contracts also contained a "Buyback" clause, which stated that if a Wealth
14 Assistants client had not made back their initial investment by the end of the 15 store's first year of operations, the client would have the option to sell the store
16 they purchased back to Wealth Assistants.

18 81. Wealth Assistants knew that it never intended to honor its Buyback clause.
19

20 B. Wealth Assistants' Marketing

21 82. Wealth Assistants sent most of its prospective clients projections showing that 22 the stores Wealth Assistants managed would generate more than $10,000 per
25
26
27
28

83. Very few, if any, of Wealth Assistants' investors ever achieved the "monthly profit totals" advertised by Wealth Assistants.

84. Wealth Assistants knew that its clients could not reasonably expect to achieve more than $10,000 per month in profits.

85. The slide deck also included the following slide:

OUR 100%
STORE BUY BACK

We're so confident in our ability to build you an income stream on Amazon that we offer all of our clients a 12-18 month buyback on their initial onboarding investment.

How it works:

If you have not recouped your initial investment back within 12-18 months from your first sale we will give you the opportunity to either:

Have us buy back your Amazon store from you at the price difference you didn't make back or...

We will waive your annual store renewal fee and continue operating and scaling your Amazon Store free of charge.

* See "buy-back" clause in our service agreements

 Please request and read our service agreement so you understand our buy back clause prior to hiring us to manage your store

86. Wealth Assistants knew that it did not intend to honor the "Buy Back" guarantee advertised in the slide above.

87. Wealth Assistants also lured clients with false advertising on social media. For example, on March 28, 2023, Wealth Assistants posted on its Facebook account that "you'll have the opportunity to sell your business 2-3 years from opening up your Amazon store (once your sales are $100K+/monthly)."

C. Plaintiffs' Experiences With Wealth Assistants

88. In July of 2022, a representative from Wealth Assistants named Charles Fitzgerald Butler emailed Plaintiff Amund Thompson and attached a PowerPoint that projected stores managed by Wealth Assistants would generate more than $10,000 per month in profits by the end of the store's first year.

1 89. In November of 2022, Thompson signed a contract to purchase the business
2 opportunity Wealth Assistants was offering.

3 90. In or around November of 2022, Thompson paid Wealth Assistants $50,000 to 4 cover the onboarding fee.

6 91. In early 2023, Thompson paid $5,000 to Wealth Assistants for inventory.
7 Thompson paid Wealth Assistants that money by wiring the money to an 8 escrow agent called Marker Law.

10 92. In total, to date, Thompson has received no more than $5,000 in connection
11 with the business opportunity that Thompson purchased from Wealth
12 Assistants.

14 93. In August of 2022, a representative of Wealth Assistants named Mack
15 McKaughan told Plaintiff David Hough that if Wealth Assistants managed a 16 store for Hough, Wealth Assistants projected that the store would generate 17 $10,000 of income per month by the end of the store's first year.

19 94. Hough signed a contract to purchase the business opportunity Wealth
20 Assistants was offering in August of 2022, and around the same time Hough
21 paid Wealth Assistants $55,000 for the onboarding fee.

23 95. Hough later wired approximately $10,000 to Wealth Assistants for inventory.
24

25 96. Hough has received less than $4,000 in connection with the business
26 opportunity he purchased from Wealth Assistants.

28 97. Isabel Ramos and Anthony Ramos are married and have several children.

1 98. Anthony Ramos spoke to Defendant Jared Day around January of 2023. Prior
2 to when Anthony and Isabel purchased the business opportunity Wealth
3 Assistants was selling, Jared Day told Anthony that if he purchased that 4 business opportunity, his store would generate around $10,000 of passive
5 income per month.

7 99. In January of 2023, Anthony and Isabel purchased the business opportunity
8 Wealth Assistants was offering.

10 100. In or around January of 2023, Isabel and Anthony paid Wealth
11 Assistants $75,000 as the onboarding fee for the business opportunity.
12

13 101. Thereafter, Isabel and Anthony paid many inventory invoices that they 14 received from Wealth Assistants. Isabel and Anthony paid those inventory 15 invoices, which totaled approximately $18,000.

17 102. Isabel and Anthony received less than $5,000 in connection with the 18 business opportunity they purchased from Wealth Assistants.

20 103. Plaintiff Michael Nibarger is a retired California Patrol Officer.

21 104. In or around September of 2022, Nibarger spoke to a representative of 22 Wealth Assistants named Brayton Bushby. Bushby sent Nibarger a PowerPoint 23 stating that Wealth Assistants' stores could be expected to generate up to 24 $10,000 per month in profits.

26 105. Nibarger then decided to purchase the business opportunity Wealth
27 Assistants was offering in September of 2022. Nibarger paid Wealth Assistants
28

1 $55,000 as the onboarding fee for the business opportunity Wealth Assistants
2 was offering.

3 106. A Wealth Assistants representative named Ashley Nydam—who now
4 works for Defendant Wholesale Universe—assisted Nibarger in setting up his 5 store.

7 107. Thereafter, Nibarger paid two inventory invoices he received from 8 Wealth Assistants for $5,000 each.

10 108. Nibarger received less than $3,000 in connection with the business
11 opportunity he purchased from Wealth Assistants.

13 D. Wealth Assistants Announced It Was Shutting Down And Fraudulently
14 Transferred Many Of Its Assets To Ryan Carroll, Michael Day, Max K.
15 Day, and Max O. Day

16 109. On October 23, 2023, Wealth Assistants wrote to its clients that it “will 17 not be able to honor any more Buyback Guarantees” and would “cease all 18 operations before December 1, 2023.”

20 110. Wealth Assistants did in fact shut down. For example, it fired all or 21 nearly all of its employees and stopped corresponding with its clients.

22 111. Wealth Assistants has not honored Plaintiffs’ Buyback agreements.

24 112. Many of Wealth Assistants’ clients have complained, requested refunds, 25 or requested that Wealth Assistants honor its Buyback agreements, but have 26 not received a response from Wealth Assistants.
28

1 113. Throughout its existence, Wealth Assistants transferred its funds—either
2 directly or indirectly with fraudulent transfers through entity Defendants—to 3 Defendants Ryan Carroll, Max K. Day, Max O. Day, and Michael Day for 4 them to personally use.

6 114. Wealth Assistants also took steps to conceal the fraudulent transfers of 7 funds to its principals Ryan Carroll, Max K. Day, Max O. Day, and Michael 8 Day, as described in more detail in the “Payment Processing Strategy” part of 9 this complaint.

11 E. Proficient Supply LLC Is Part Of Wealth Assistants
12

13 115. From approximately February of 2020 through November of 2022,
14 Proficient Supply LLC operated a scam that was nearly identical to Wealth
15 Assistants’ scam. The Federal Trade Commission stated in a complaint that 16 Proficient Supply LLC formed a common enterprise with a company called 17 DK Automation that had:
18

20 promise[d] to help set up an Amazon store for purchasers of these 21 Amazon programs, identify proven ‘home run products,’ negotiate with 22 suppliers, and order, process, and ship inventory to Amazon. They 23 further promise to expertly manage the Amazon storefront on behalf of 24 purchasers, while Amazon will provide customers for the store.
25 Purchasers need only sit back and receive ‘passive income.’
28

116. The Complaint noted that Proficient Supply LLC's role in the common enterprise was that it "receives customer payments, pays employees, and stores products related to Defendants' business opportunities."

117. Almost immediately after the FTC filed the complaint in November of 2022, the Court issued an emergency restraining order freezing Proficient Supply LLC's assets and ordering Proficient Supply LLC to cease engaging in the unlawful activity.

118. In violation of the Court's order, Proficient Supply kept engaging in the unlawful activity, but it did so as part of the Wealth Assistants common enterprise rather than the DK Automation common enterprise.

119. In or around March of 2023, Wealth Assistants purchased Proficient Supply LLC. Wealth Assistants sent an update to its clients telling them about the purchase. An example of two such emails are shown below:

Hi Nicole,

Thanks for reaching out. Great questions. To answer some:

1. We have over 600 clients with over 700 stores total. Legit question on your end. However, we are U.S. based and bound by all business laws, banking laws, etc. We have three brick and mortar offices, over 300 employees and are Certified Amazon Providers. We are partnered with Cart.com You can see the write up here. We've also just acquired Proficient Supply in a multi-million dollar purchase so we're growing and growing and growing.

Subject: Wealth Assistants- Executive Summaries, Articles and Resources

Tahmica

Just dropping a quick hello, I'm back after a few days with the team in Vegas, we had our annual team meeting, and there is also an Amazon conference on this week- There are so many exciting updates, including WA's acquisition of 2 established companies (in areas of Analytics and Distribution) that are going to positively impact our partners store success, along with many other resources including a new detailed website;

wealthassistants.com

Looking forward to working with you.

Our Newly Acquired Distribution Company (Proficient Supply LLC) is Wealth Assistants In-House Product Supply and Distribution Center coming with an established and with a vast catalogue of hundreds of thousands of product lines, of which over 90,000 unique products (SKUs) already vetted by us, and approved as sellable products, which are in stock waiting to be allocated to our Amazon partner stores;

• <https://www.proficientsupplyllc.com/>

120. Proficient Supply was listed as Precision Trading Group's (one of the Wealth Assistants Entity Defendants) alias on its corporate registration.

121. Proficient Supply began accepting large wire transfers from other Wealth Assistants entities. For example:

- a. On March 22, 2022, a Wealth Assistants account at Wells Fargo ending in -2209 sent a $208,000 wire transfer to another Wells Fargo account with an account number ending in -2546. The wire memorandum stated "1st of 12 payments for asset purchase of PROFICIENT SUPPLY LLC." Although the -2209 account is held by "Precision Trading Group" the wire transfer records indicated that the transferor was "Max K. Day."
- b. On April 3, 2022, the -2209 account again sent a $208,000 wire transfer to the -2546 account.

1 c. On May 2, 2023, the -2209 account sent a $208,323.33 wire transfer to a
2 different Proficient Supply account, which was held at Bank of America
3 and had an account number ending in -7927.

5 d. On April 14, 2023, WA Distribution LLC sent a $155,000 wire transfer
6 to a Proficient Supply bank account held at Wells Fargo.

8 e. On April 17, 2023, WA Distribution LLC sent a $300,000 wire transfer
9 payment to a Proficient Supply bank account held at Wells Fargo.

11 f. On May 2, 2023, WA Distribution sent a $99,990 wire transfer payment
12 to a Proficient Supply bank account held at Wells Fargo.

13 122. In January of 2024, a bank account held by Proficient Supply frequently
14 received payments from Shopify while representing in transactional records
15 that it was doing business as “WA Distribution” sometimes and “WA Brand 16 Management LLC” other times.

18 123. Ultimately, since Proficient Supply was acquired by Wealth Assistants,
19 it has intermingled its assets with the Wealth Assistants Entity Defendants
20 interchangeably.

22 124. It is also impossible to distinguish between Proficient Supply’s
23 operations and the operations of the Wealth Assistants Entity Defendants.

25 125. Therefore, Proficient Supply is another alter ego of the Wealth
26 Assistants Entity Defendants.

F. When Wealth Assistants Shut Down, It Transitioned Many Of Its Clients’ Accounts And Assets To The Quantum-Wholesale Partnership

126. Wholesale Universe and Quantum Ecommerce operate a partnership that purports to provide store-management services similar to the store-management services that Wealth Assistants used to purport to provide.

127. Bonnie Nichols, the owner of Wholesale Universe, has described Wholesale Universe and Quantum Ecommerce as “like a brother-sister company” in which Bonnie Nichols—acting through Wholesale Universe—“lock[s] down the inventory” and Troy Marchand—acting through Quantum Ecommerce—“provides the account management services,” such as monitoring the online stores, handling returns and refunds, and helping to reactivate any online stores that Amazon has deactivated.

128. Wholesale Universe and Quantum Ecommerce have presented themselves as a joint partnership operating a single business when presenting contracts to clients.

129. Moreover, Precision Trading Group LLC (one of the Wealth Assistants Entity Defendants) has done business as “Quantum Ecom” according to its corporate registration.

130. On October 27, 2023—approximately four days after Wealth Assistants announced that it was shutting down—Bonnie Nichols described the manner in which she (acting through Wholesale Universe) and Troy Marchand (acting

1 through Quantum Ecommerce) aided Wealth Assistants as follows, in an online
2 webinar presented publicly and targeted at Wealth Assistants' former clients:

3 The way that we actually met Wealth Assistants is they reached
4 out to us about 90 days ago, because they were having issues with 5 supply chain, and with inventory and getting that product
6 uploaded into their clients stores. And because they know that
7 we've got that locked down, they reached out to us and they said,
8 hey, we need your help. And so we came on board about 90 days
9 ago, and we started servicing about 100 to 175 clients with our
10 products and services. We didn't have access to your information, 11 we had access to be able to upload the product into your store as 12 quickly as possible.

13 131. Upon information and belief, Bonnie Nichols' statement is true insofar
14 as Bonnie Nichols and Troy Marchand—acting through the Quantum-
15 Wholesale Partnership—did help Wealth Assistants while it was operating. For 16 example, upon information and belief, Bonnie Nichols and Troy Marchand
17 helped Wealth Assistants recruit new clients and/or help transfer funds from 18 those clients to Wealth Assistants.

19 132. However, the Quantum-Wholesale Partnership did not provide 20 reasonable inventory or store-management services to 100 clients. For 21 example, it is not true that the Quantum-Wholesale Partnership provided
22 $10,000 or more of inventory to 100 stores that Wealth Assistants was 23 managing.

25 133. As discussed above, on October 23, 2023, Defendant Ryan Carroll—the 26 CEO of Wealth Assistants—emailed Wealth Assistants' clients, including 27 Plaintiffs, stating Wealth Assistants “will not be able to honor any more
28

1 Buyback Guarantees” and would “cease all operations before December 1,
2 2023.” The same email also stated that Wealth Assistants was offering its 3 clients a “Transition Agreement.” Specifically, Wealth Assistants offered its 4 clients the opportunity to transition their stores to management by another e-5 commerce firm on “favorable terms.” The email also attached a “comparison of 6 vendor proposals,” which purportedly compared three e-commerce firms that 7 had offered “favorable terms” to manage Wealth Assistants’ clients’ stores. But 8 the only e-commerce firms actually identified in the “vendor proposals” were 9 “Quantum Ecom” and “Wholesale Universe,” which jointly offered a proposal.
10 The other “vendors” offering the proposal were anonymous.
13

14 134. After Wealth Assistants shut down, many former clients of Wealth
15 Assistants began receiving unsolicited emails from Wholesale Universe, acting
16 on behalf of the Wholesale Universe and Quantum Ecommerce joint 17 partnership. Some of those emails stated that “prior to going out of business,
18 Wealth Assistants purchased an inventory package for you valued at $35,000.
19 It is now ready for upload to your Amazon FBA account.”

22 135. The statement about the inventory-package purchases was false because 23 Wealth Assistants had not in fact purchased $35,000 inventory packages for all 24 of the recipients of that email before it shut down.

26 136. However, Wealth Assistants did in fact transfer assets from itself to 27 Wholesale Universe. Wealth Assistants and Wholesale Universe made those 28

1 transfers for the purpose of preventing Wealth Assistants' current and future
2 creditors, including Plaintiffs, from accessing Wealth Assistants' assets. For 3 example, on July 27, 2023, the Wealth Assistants Entity Defendant called 4 Providence Oak Properties transferred $250,000 to Wholesale Universe. On 5 September 27, 2023, the Wealth Assistants Entity Defendant called Providence
6 Oak Properties transferred $500,000 to Wholesale Universe, Inc. The wire
7 transfer memorandum stated "For Fulfillable – WA." Another Wealth
8 Assistants Entity Defendant called WA Distribution made a wire transfer to 9 Wholesale Universe for $200,000 on the same day (September 27, 2023) from 10 a WA Distribution account at Thread Bank. On September 28, 2023, the same
11 WA Distribution account transferred $50,000 to Wholesale Universe. Wealth
12 Assistants did not receive anything of comparable value in exchange for those 13 transfers, which totaled $1 million.

16
17
18 137. In the October 27th, 2023 webinar noted above, Bonnie Nichols
19 described the Quantum-Wholesale Partnership's reaction to hearing that 20 Wealth Assistants was shutting down by stating:

22 We were kind of like, you know, caught off guard just like you
23 guys were over the last couple of weeks when all this happened.
24 And so, so we're kind of right now, filling, figuring out
25 how we can reach out to you guys, but we have a ton of product—
26 it's at our warehouse right now—that's ready to be uploaded into 27 your accounts.

28 And so all we need is to be able to get you guys onboarded and to get your user permission access to your store so that we can upload the inventory for the funds that was sent over to us from

1 Wealth Assistants, since that's still pending to be uploaded into
2 your accounts.

3 138. Meanwhile, Bonnie Nichols, Troy Marchand, and either Max K. Day or 4 Max O. Day were instant messaging in a group called “Fulfillable” (the name
5 of one of the Wealth Assistants Entity Defendants) about how the Quantum-
6 Wholesale Partnership could gain to access Wealth Assistants’ former clients’
7 online stores.

9 139. On December 19, 2023, Wholesale Universe—acting on behalf of the 10 Quantum-Wholesale Partnership—sent an email to many of Wealth Assistants’
11 clients. Although the vast majority of the recipients of the email had not 12 partnered with Wholesale Universe, the email began by stating “We appreciate
13 your partnership with Wholesale Universe and value the opportunity to assist
14 in providing you your Amazon inventory efficiently, as was ordered by Wealth
15 Assistants over the last 100 plus days.” The email later stated “to ensure a 16 smooth transition, we kindly request your prompt attention to the following
17 matters: Please provide Wholesale Universe User Access Permission . . .” The 18 email later stated “failure to provide the required information within the next
19 30 days will result in the initiation of a monthly storage fee of $500, 20 commencing from December 20, 2023. This fee will be deducted from your 21 inventory amount currently on hand at WU.”

22 140. Many of Wealth Assistants’ former clients who received Wholesale
23 Universe’s email demanded that the Quantum-Wholesale Partnership provide
26
27
28

1 those former clients with the money that Wealth Assistants had paid the
2 Quantum-Wholesale Partnership for the former clients' respective stores'
3 inventory.

5 141. The Quantum-Wholesale Partnership refused to make those payments to 6 the vast majority of former Wealth Assistants clients who asked for them. The 7 Quantum-Wholesale Partnership told at least one former Wealth Assistants
8 client that any such requests must be directed to Wealth Assistants' bankruptcy
9 attorneys, but it would not say who the Wealth Assistants bankruptcy attorney
10 is, and none of the Wealth Assistants Entity Defendants had declared
11 bankruptcy.
13

14 G. The Payment Processor Defendants Conspired With Wealth Assistants To 15 Help It Conceal Assets From Plaintiffs

16 i. Wealth Assistants Payment Processing Strategy

17 142. Wealth Assistants knew, at all times it existed, that it was operating a 18 fraudulent scheme.

20 143. Accordingly, Wealth Assistants suspected that its clients would 21 eventually either attempt to charge back their credit cards to recover their 22 payments, or sue Wealth Assistants to attempt to recover their payments.
23

24 144. Moreover, Wealth Assistants knew that it would likely lose any 25 chargeback disputes or lawsuits commenced against it.
26

27 145. Accordingly, Wealth Assistants attempted to conceal the proceeds of its 28 fraudulent scheme so that, even when it lost chargeback disputes or lawsuits,

1 its clients would not be able to recover their money because they would not be
2 able to find the assets.

3 146. Furthermore, Wealth Assistants knew that it would need to avoid 4 scrutiny from anti-money-laundering regulators and law enforcement because,
5 if it drew scrutiny, it would be easy for regulators and law enforcement officers
6 to detect that Wealth Assistants was a fraudulent scheme.

8 147. Wealth Assistants attempted to avoid drawing scrutiny from regulators,
9 and attempted to make its assets more difficult for creditors to find, by: (1)
10 often breaking what would be large transactions into multiple small 11 transactions, (2) using many different payment processors so that no single 12 payment processor was processing too much money, (3) dividing its assets into 13 many different bank accounts, and (4) passing money through many different 14 accounts and payment processors before the money reached its final destination
15 (collectively, the “Payment Processing Strategy”).
16

19 ii. Travis Marker’s Knowledge Of And Substantial Assistance With 20 The Payment Processing Strategy

21 148. Defendant Travis Marker, acting on behalf of his companies Marker
22 Law & Mediation and Parlay Law Group, served as an “escrow agent” for 23 Wealth Assistants.

25 149. In his capacity as an “escrow agent,” Travis Marker collected payments
26 from Wealth Assistants’ clients and then passed them to bank accounts
27 controlled by Wealth Assistants.
28

1 150. In order to collect payments from Wealth Assistants' clients, Marker
2 often shipped credit card readers to the clients and instructed them to make
3 discrete small payments.

5 151. Sometimes, Marker sent a Wealth Assistants client more than one credit
6 card reader because, he told them, a single credit card reader could only 7 process a small amount of payments at one time.

9 152. Marker used different credit card readers to process payments, in small 10 discrete amounts, to attempt to avoid money-laundering detection because he 11 knew that his escrow account was being used to launder money for Wealth
12 Assistants.

14 iii. Banks' Anti Money Laundering Obligations:

15 153. Know Your Customer Obligations: Federal law requires banks to 16 know their customers and understand their customers' banking behavior.
17 Under applicable regulations, a bank must maintain procedures that allow it to 18 "form a reasonable belief that it knows the true identity of each customer." 31
19 C.F.R. §§ 1020.220(a)(1), (2). Thus, banks are required to collect information
20 about the holder of each account. Where an entity opens an account, the bank
21 must obtain information concerning the individuals who control the account.
24

25 154. Banks are obligated to comply with the Bank Secrecy Act (BSA), 12
26 C.F.R. § 21.21, including regulations broadening its anti-money laundering
27 provisions.
28

1 155. The BSA requires banks to develop, administer, and maintain a program
2 to ensure compliance. The program must be approved by the bank's board of
3 directors and noted in the board meeting minutes. It must: (1) provide for a
4 system of internal controls to ensure ongoing BSA compliance, (2) provide for 5 independent testing of the bank's compliance, (3) designate an individual to 6 coordinate and monitor compliance, and (4) provide training for appropriate
7 personnel.

10 156. Banks also must develop a customer due diligence program to assist in 11 predicting the types of transactions, dollar volume, and transaction volume 12 each customer is likely to conduct, thereby providing the bank with a means for 13 identifying unusual or suspicious transactions for each customer. The 14 customer due diligence program allows the bank to maintain awareness of the 15 financial activity of its customers and the ability to predict the type and 16 frequency of transactions in which its customers are likely to engage.

19 157. When an entity rather than an individual opens an account, banks obtain
20 information about the individual who controls the account.

22 158. Using the information collected, as well as external resources like 23 internet search engines and public and commercial record databases, banks
24 create an initial client profile and assign a compliance-related risk rating.
25 Neither the profile nor the risk rating is final or static. When banks become 26 aware that customer information has materially changed, their internal controls

1 require updating the information and, where appropriate, reassessing the
2 customer's risk profile or rating.

3 159. Customer due diligence programs should be tailored to the risk presented
4 by individual customers, such that the higher the risk presented, the more
5 attention is paid. When a bank determines a customer is high risk, the bank
6 gathers additional information about the customer and accounts, including 7 determining: (1) purpose of the account; (2) source of funds; (3) proximity of 8 customer's residence to the bank; and (4) explanations for changes in account
9 activity.
12

13 160. Banks' Controls: Additionally, banks must designate a BSA
14 compliance officer who is a senior bank official responsible for coordinating 15 and monitoring compliance with the BSA. The compliance officer must, in 16 turn, designate an individual at each office or branch to monitor the bank's
17 day-to-day BSA compliance.

19 161. The federal government established the Federal Financial Institutions
20 Examination Council (FFIEC) in 1979 to prescribe uniform principles, 21 standards, and report forms and to promote uniformity in the supervision of 22 financial institutions. The FFIEC's Bank Secrecy Anti-Money Laundering
23 Manual (FFIEC Manual) summarizes BSA and anti-money laundering
24 compliance program requirements, risks and risk management expectations, 25 industry sound practices, and examination procedures. The FFIEC Manual is
28

1 based on BSA laws and regulations and BSA and anti-money laundering
2 directives issued by federal banking agencies, such as the Federal Reserve, the 3 Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC), and the Office of the
4 Comptroller of Currency. See FFIEC BSA/AML Examination Manual, at p. 5
5 (2010).

7 162. Banks must also ensure that their employees follow BSA guidelines.

9 Banks make compliance a condition of employment and incorporate
10 compliance with the BSA and its implementing regulations into job
11 descriptions and performance evaluations. Banks are therefore required to 12 train all personnel whose duties may require knowledge of the BSA on that 13 statute's requirements.

15 163. Banks maintain systems of controls sufficient to identify broad patterns
16 of account activity, sometimes spanning several accounts. The substantive 17 nature of the transactions, the relationships between the transacting parties, and 18 the parties' identities, are all subject to this examination. Banks contextualize
19 the scrutiny, analyzing suspicious activity against the backdrop of industry
20 norms and each customer's background. Banks are expected to use external 21 sources of information like the internet, commercial database searches, and 22 direct inquiries to ascertain the identity of originators and beneficiaries, and/or 23 the nature of suspicious account transactions.
26
27
28

1 164. Bankers processing outgoing wire transfers are trained to ask the
2 customer questions designed to detect possible money laundering, including 3 the purpose of the transaction and the nature of the relationship between the 4 parties. Typically, wires between $25,000 and $100,000 automatically prompt
5 personnel to use a checklist to evaluate the transaction. A customer service
6 manager who approves outgoing wires often conducts a secondary review,
7 confirming that the checklist questions were adequately addressed. Wire
8 transactions above $100,000 typically require additional approval of a regional 9 employee, and transactions over $500,000 typically also require branch
10 manager authorization.
13

14 165. Red Flags Triggering Heightened Review: Banks and their personnel
15 must be able to identify and take appropriate action once put on notice of any
16 of a series of money laundering “red flags” set forth in the FFIEC BSA/AML
17 Examination Manual. These red flags include: (1) repetitive or unusual fund 18 transfer activity; (2) fund transfers sent or received from the same person to or 19 from different accounts; (3) transactions inconsistent with the account holder’s
20 business; (4) transfers of funds among related accounts; (5) depositing of funds
21 into several accounts that are later consolidated into a single master account;
22 (6) large fund transfers sent in round dollar amounts; (7) multiple accounts
23 established in various corporate names that lack sufficient business purpose to 24 justify the account complexities; (8) multiple high-value payments or transfers
26
27
28

1 between shell companies without a legitimate business purpose; (9) payments
2 unconnected to legitimate contracts or revenue sources; (10) fund transfers
3 containing limited content or related party information; (11) transacting
4 businesses sharing the same address; and (12) an unusually large number of 5 persons or entities receiving fund transfers from one company.

7 166. Banks use transaction monitoring software and data analytics to reveal
8 hidden connections and relationships between transacting parties across
9 multiple accounts and transactions. The software automatically reviews
10 transactions against customers' backgrounds and transaction histories, checks
11 for red flags (including the red flags mentioned above), and automatically
12 detects and analyzes abnormal or risky behavior. When the software identifies 13 activity warranting further review or escalation, it alerts bank personnel and 14 triggers manual reviews of the account or activity in question.
17
18
19

20 iv. Banks of America's Participation In And Knowledge Of The 21 Payment Processing Strategy

22 167. Bank of America has operated at least 20 bank accounts controlled by 23 Wealth Assistants or its principals. Bank of America operated those accounts
24 despite knowing that other Defendants were using them in furtherance of a
25 fraudulent scheme.
26
27
28

1 168. A Bank of America account held by “Wealth Assistants LLC” that had
2 an account number ending in -4905 accepted millions of dollars in wire
3 transfers from Wealth Assistants LLC’s customers as payments for the
4 business opportunities Wealth Assistants was offering. The account began
5 accepting those transfers at least as early as May of 2022.

7 169. Many of the wire transfers that the -4905 account received from the 8 putative class members stated that the wire transfers were for an “investment.”

10 170. According to Bank of America’s wire-transfer records and account
11 statements, Wealth Assistants LLC’s address was 34428 Yucaipa Blvd, Ste.
12 273, Yucaipa, CA 92399 in May of 2022.

14 171. Although the -4905 account had been accepting millions of dollars in 15 wire transfers since at least May of 2022, the only account-opening
16 documentation for the -4905 account that Bank of America has produced
17 to Plaintiffs is dated and signed September 19, 2022.

19 172. That account-opening documentation for the -4905 account states that 20 the financial center for the documentation is “Aliso Viejo” (in California). The 21 authorized persons for the account, according to the account documentation,
22 were Defendant Ryan Carroll and Defendant Christine R. Johnson (whose title 23 is listed as “Finance Manager” for Wealth Assistants).
24

25 173. The name of the Bank of America associate responsible for the account
26 documentation was Jonathan Ramirez Cabral.
27

176. On the same day that Ryan Carroll opened the -4905 account (September 19, 2022), Ryan Carroll opened a separate account in the name of Wealth Assistants LLC with the same associate. That account number ended in -0434.

177. Ryan Carroll also opened several other corporate bank accounts at Bank of America around the same time. For example:

a. Ryan Carroll opened a “Dreams to Reality” account ending in -1983 on September 8, 2022 at Bank of America’s Allapattah, Florida financial center with associate Osman Delgado.

b. Ryan Carroll opened two “WA Brand Management LLC” accounts on September 8, 2022 at Bank of America’s Allapattah, Florida financial center with associate Osman Delgado. The account numbers of those two accounts ended in -3907 and -3949.

c. Ryan Carroll opened six “Dreams to Reality” accounts, with account numbers ending in -3864, -8681, -8694, -8704, -8717, and -8720, which Ryan Carroll opened on July 7, 2022 at Bank of America’s Downtown Miami financial center with associate Maria Aragon.

d. A savings account with a number ending in -3039 held by Wealth Assistants LLC was also opened in July of 2022, but Bank of America did not produce any account opening documentation for that account.

178. In July and August of 2022, Ryan Carroll used the “Dreams to Reality” bank account at Bank of America with an account number ending in -8720 to receive more than $1 million in wire transfers from the -4905 Wealth Assistants account at Bank of America, and then disperse most of that money to various other Bank of America accounts that Ryan Carroll controlled. These are the account statements in July and August of 2022 for that account:

08/29/22	Online Banking transfer to CHK 8694 Confirmation# 1872075011	-12,112.00
Total withdrawals and other debits		-$812,959.00

179. As of October 1, 2022, the -4905 account had a balance of $5,899,989.52, the vast majority of which had been procured via payments from Wealth Assistants' clients.

180. In October of 2022, $4,346,122.76 was withdrawn from the -4905 account and transferred to unknown accounts in a series of suspicious transactions. For example, on October 3, 2023, the -4905 account transferred

1 $582,895.20 to another Bank of America account held by Wealth Assistants
2 LLC that had an account number ending in -0434.

3 181. According to a lawsuit that Wealth Assistants filed against Bank of 4 America, on or around November 17, 2022, Ryan Carroll lost access to and
5 control over at least one of Wealth Assistants' bank accounts. Defendant Ryan
6 Carroll then began calling Bank of America to discuss the freezing of the 7 account. Bank of America told Carroll that Wealth Assistants' Bank of 8 America accounts would officially be closed on November 22, 2022, and that 9 Carroll would receive a cashier's check for the outstanding balances.

13 182. Bank of America froze and then closed bank accounts controlled by 14 Wealth Assistants because Bank of America knew that Wealth Assistants and 15 Ryan Carroll were perpetrating the fraudulent scheme described herein.

17 183. Even though Bank of America knew that Wealth Assistants was 18 perpetrating the Wealth Assistants fraud, Bank of America allowed Wealth
19 Assistants to rapidly siphon funds from the Wealth Assistants accounts after 20 the accounts were purportedly frozen on November 17, 2022 (instead of taking 21 steps to return the money that Wealth Assistants had stolen to the individuals
22 from whom Wealth Assistants had stolen the money, or interpleading the 23 funds).
25
26
27
28

1 184. For example, on November 18, 2022, the -4905 account controlled by
2 Wealth Assistants transferred more than $100,000 to an unknown bank account
3 using approximately 53 transactions with the description “Payroll.”

5 185. The same account accepted hundreds of thousands of dollars via 6 additional wire transfers from Wealth Assistants’ customers after November
7 17, 2022.

9 186. On January 26, 2023, Bank of America wrote a cashier’s check “to the 10 order of Wealth Assistants LLC” for $3,784,191.12.

12 187. On January 31, 2023, the cashier’s check was cashed at Wells Fargo
13 Bank.
14

15 188. Moreover, even though Bank of America knew of Wealth Assistants and 16 Ryan Carroll’s fraud, Bank of America failed to shut down bank accounts
17 controlled by Ryan Carroll and/or his alter ego Dreams To Reality, LLC, which 18 allowed Ryan Carroll to continue concealing the proceeds of Wealth
19 Assistants’ fraudulent scheme.

21 189. On April 15, 2024, this Court issued an asset-freeze order. Plaintiffs
22 provided Bank of America with notice of the asset-freeze order on April 16,
23 2024. When the asset-freeze order was converted to a preliminary injunction,
24 Plaintiffs immediately sent Bank of America notice of that preliminary 25 injunction.
26
27
28

1 190. Bank of America failed to take any reasonable steps to avoid
2 participating in a violation of the asset-freeze order. Instead, Bank of America
3 ignored the asset-freeze order entirely. As a result, Wealth Assistants'
4 principals used Bank of America accounts to continue transferring and
5 concealing thousands of dollars.

7 191. Plaintiffs' counsel called Bank of America's legal processing department
8 on June 14, 2024 to inquire about a subpoena that Plaintiffs had issued to Bank
9 of America. On that call, a Bank of America representative told Plaintiffs'
10 counsel that, although Bank of America had received notice of the asset-freeze 11 order, it had failed to take any steps to process the asset-freeze order by 12 entering the freeze order into its computer system or taking any steps to 13 implement the asset-freeze order.
16

17 192. Approximately a week before Plaintiffs filed a motion to amend their 18 Second Amended Complaint, Plaintiffs received records from Citi Bank
19 showing that on April 11, 2024, a Citi Bank account held by Defendant Ryan
20 Alexander Carroll transferred money to a Bank of America account—with an 21 unknown account number—for the benefit of Ryan Alexander Carroll (i.e.,
22 Defendant Ryan Carroll was sending the money from his own Citi Bank
23 account to his own Bank of America account). Bank of America has not 24 disclosed any records associated with whatever bank account received that wire
26
27
28

1 transfer, even though it was ordered to produce account records for all accounts
2 controlled by Ryan Carroll.

3 193. Upon information and belief, Bank of America is continuing to operate
4 bank accounts that it knows are subject to the Court's asset freeze order.

6 v. Wells Fargo's Agent Total-Apps Knew Of And Substantially
7 Assisted With The Payment Processing Strategy

8 194. The Executive Director of Total-Apps is Rey Pasinli. In 2005, the 9 Federal Trade Commission brought an action against Rey Pasinli in the Central 10 District of California in Case Number CV 05-6054. The complaint alleged that 11 Pasinli "provided payment processing services to a fraudulent enterprise
12 known as Pharmacycards, which attempted to steal at least $1.2 million from 13 thousands of consumer checking accounts." Specifically, he "arranged for 14 consumers' accounts to be debited without personally meeting any individual
15 associated with the Pharmacycards operation" and did not "require proof that 16 consumers had authorized the debits to their checking accounts."
18
19

20 195. To resolve the suit brought by the Federal Trade Commission, Pasinli
21 stipulated to a permanent injunction. He agreed to refrain from "taking any 22 action to process any payment, directly or on behalf of any client, against any 23 consumer's credit card or bank account without having previously undertaken a 24 reasonable investigation to determine that the consumer has provided 25 defendants or the client with express verifiable authorization."
28

1 196. After stipulating to that permanent injunction, Pasinli became the owner
2 and Executive Director of the company Total-Apps. At all times that Wealth
3 Assistants operated, Total-Apps stated on its website that it was “a registered
4 ISO of Wells Fargo Bank, N.A.”

6 197. Upon information and belief, Total-Apps was in fact a registered
7 independent sales company (“ISO”) of Wells Fargo at all times relevant to this 8 dispute.

10 198. An ISO is an entity that is authorized to market and sell the services of 11 banks and payment processors to merchants. Typically, ISOs do not merely sell
12 the banks or payment processors’ services; the ISOs also manage those 13 services for the merchant and provide custom services to the merchant based 14 on their specific needs.

17 199. According to its website, the services that Total Apps provides to 18 merchants as a registered ISO of Wells Fargo Bank include:
19

- 20 a. “if payment processing has been halted, we are able to help you restore 21 payment processing by quickly setting up the new merchant accounts.”
23 b. “If funds have been frozen, we can recommend the best process to 24 release these funds and resume business operations quickly.”
25
26 c. “reduc[ing] reserve rates”
27
28 d. “increas[ing] processing limits”
e. “fraud chargeback response”

1 f. “Total-Apps is the expert in providing Merchant Account Services and
2 Advanced Payment Processing Solutions. To optimize your process you
3 can select to outsource payment processing to our team. Alternatively,
4 we can provide on-site and off-site training for your employees.”

6 200. Because Total Apps was a registered ISO of Wells Fargo, Wells Fargo
7 had a duty to supervise and monitor Total-Apps.

9 201. Upon information and belief, Total-Apps acted as Wells Fargo’s agent
10 whenever it was assisting Wealth Assistants, including when it was helping 11 Wealth Assistants process payments and conceal the proceeds of its fraudulent
12 scheme.

14 202. Total-Apps had access to Wealth Assistants’ financial records.
15

16 203. Total-Apps assisted Wealth Assistants in concealing its assets and 17 avoiding regulatory scrutiny by helping Wealth Assistants and the payment
18 processors implement the Payment Processing Strategy described above.

20 204. Total Apps recruited various merchants (which it sometimes referred to, 21 euphemistically, as “payment processors”) to serve as intermediaries for some 22 of Wealth Assistants transactions. That is, the merchants would use their 23 merchant accounts to accept a transfer of Wealth Assistants’ fraudulently
24 procured assets, and then transfer those assets to a different account controlled
25 by Wealth Assistants.
27
28

1 205. For example, in January of 2023, Max O. Day was attempting to recruit
2 a new intermediary for Wealth Assistants called “Mint Solutions.” By way of
3 background, in January of 2023, Wealth Assistants was unable to accept
4 payments from individuals who wanted to purchase the business opportunity
5 Wealth Assistants was offering because, according to Max O. Day, all of 6 Wealth Assistants’ “payment processors” had “maxed out.” It is unclear
7 exactly what Max O. Day meant by that, but it is likely that he was referring—
8 at least in part—to the fact that Bank of America had shut down Wealth
9 Assistants’ primary bank account that Wealth Assistants had used to accept
10 wire transfers from its clients. Now, Wealth Assistants was having difficulty
11 finding another bank that would operate a merchant account for Wealth
12 Assistants and accept millions of dollars every month in highly suspicious wire
13 transfers. Accordingly, Wealth Assistants was asking more “intermediaries”—
14 such as Mint Solutions—to accept the money from Wealth Assistants’ clients.

15 206. In attempting to recruit Mint Solutions, Max O. Day sent the email
17 and Alison@total-apps.com:

8 Zach - I would like to introduce you Rey and Alison with Total Apps. I have known
9 Rey for 15+ years, and he is a trusted friend. They take a very creative and 10 custom approach to processing. They could help with your rapidly expanding
11 business.
13 Y'all take it from here.
14
15 Very Best,
16 Max

17 207. The phrase “very creative and custom approach to processing” in the 18 email shown above was Max O. Day’s euphemism to convey that Total-
19 Apps—acting on behalf of Wells Fargo—had helped the Day family and 20 Wealth Assistants process payments in a manner that concealed assets and 21 avoided scrutiny from regulators.

22 208. Notably, Mint Solutions is not a registered payment processor. Instead,
23 as noted above, Mint Solutions’ role in the Payment Processing Strategy was to 24 use its merchant account to receive payments from Wealth Assistants’
25 customers and then use payment processors to pass those payments to other
26 accounts controlled by Wealth Assistants.

27 209. Mint Solutions ultimately decided not to serve as an intermediary for 28 Wealth Assistants or Total Apps because it was suspicious of their activities.

1 However, Mint Solutions did serve as an intermediary for one of Mint
2 Solutions' legacy clients who wanted to purchase Wealth Assistants' business
3 opportunities. Mint Solutions accepted that one client's funds and transferred it
4 to Wealth Assistants.

6 210. As discussed in more detail below (in the "Wells Fargo" section), on 7 January 31, 2023—about three months after Bank of America had frozen
8 Wealth Assistants' bank accounts—Wealth Assistants finally managed to open
9 a bank account at a Wells Fargo branch that would immediately accept a cash
10 deposit of $3.7 million, accept more than a million dollars each month in wire
11 transfers from Wealth Assistants' clients, and allow Wealth Assistants to then 12 transfer that money to its principals, despite mountains of red flags in all of 13 those transactions (described in more detail below) that inevitably triggered
14 manual review.
17

18 211. Upon information and belief, Total Apps—in its capacity as a registered
19 ISO of Wells Fargo—helped Wealth Assistants open and operate the Wells
20 Fargo merchant accounts.
21

22 212. Apart from recruiting intermediaries and setting up merchant accounts,
23 Total Apps also acted as Wealth Assistants payment "gateway" that connected
24 Wealth Assistants' merchant accounts that held assets for Wealth Assistants.
25 As the gateway, Total Apps rotated which merchant accounts were involved in 26 Wealth Assistants' Payment Processing Strategy in a manner designed to help
28

1 Wealth Assistants avoid fraud detection. For example, if a Wealth Assistants
2 transaction was flagged or stalled, Total Apps may avoid using the merchant
3 account involved in that transaction in future transactions.

5 213. As a mark of Total Apps' "gateway" services, wire transfers from WA
6 Distribution LLC to other Wealth Assistants alter egos often included wire
7 memorandums that stated "WA Distribution LLC | Total Apps" and addenda
8 that stated "Total Apps Processing."

10 vi. Wells Fargo's Other Knowledge Of And Substantial Participation
11 In The Payment Processing Activities:

12 214. Wells Fargo acted as a co-conspirator in the Wealth Assistants
13 fraudulent scheme through its agent, Total-Apps, as discussed above.
14

15 215. Wells Fargo also participated in the conspiracy by keeping custody of 16 Wealth Assistants' assets and other Defendants' assets.

18 216. Wells Fargo also processed payments for Wealth Assistants. In 19 particular, Wealth Assistants used the Wells Fargo payment processor branded
20 "Zelle" to process many of its fraudulent transactions. Wells Fargo was also 21 the sponsoring bank for many of Wealth Assistants' other fraudulent transfers 22 of assets, including transactions that sent fraudulently procured assets to the 23 Bank of the Philippine Islands. The payment processors for those transactions
24 included "Stripe," "Wise," and "Paypal" which used Wells Fargo as their 25 sponsoring bank for the pertinent transactions.
28

1 217. Wells Fargo knew that Wealth Assistants was a fraudulent scheme when
2 Wells Fargo custodied Wealth Assistants' assets and processed its payments.

3 218. Wells Fargo custodied the following accounts controlled by the Wealth
4 Assistants Entity Defendants or the Human Defendants (with the last four 5 digits of the account number in parentheses):

6 g. MAXPRO MARKETING LLC (-0188)

7 h. PRECISION TRADING GROUP LLC (-2183)

8 i. PRECISION TRADING GROUP LLC (-2191)

9 j. PRECISION TRADING GROUP LLC (DBA WEALTH ASSISTANTS
10 LLC) (-2209)

11 k. PRECISION TRADING GROUP LLC (-2365)

12 l. PRECISION TRADING GROUP LLC (-2373)

13 m. MAX K. DAY (-3706)

14 n. BUSINESS FINANCIAL SOLUTIONS ADVISORY (-6864)

15 o. PRECISION TRADING GROUP LLC (-7394)

16 p. PITHY PRODUCTIONS INC. (-2255)

17 q. PRECISION TRADING GROUP LLC [an investment account] (-8580)

18 r. RNJ ENTERPRISE LLC (-8019)

19 s. PROFICIENT SUPPLY LLC (-2546)

1 219. All of the accounts listed above except the -7394, -2255, and -8019
2 accounts (and possibly the -2546 and -8418 accounts) listed the same address
3 for the account holder, which was Defendant Max K. Day's home address.

5 220. Each of those accounts listed above was eventually closed by Wells
6 Fargo and now contains no money.

8 * * *

9 221. Before Wealth Assistants was created, Wells Fargo had aided members
10 of the Day family in other similar fraudulent schemes. For example, in 11 September of 2004, Wells Fargo loaned $500,000 to a fraudulent venture run
12 by Max K. Day and other members of his family called "Today's Destiny"
13 (described in more detail below). After Today's Destiny's fraud was revealed
14 and it filed for bankruptcy, Wells Fargo filed a proof of claim and sought to 15 recover the loan. Therefore, even before Wealth Assistants was created, Wells
16 Fargo had first-hand knowledge that Max K. Day was a high-risk client.
19

20 222. As discussed above, Wells Fargo's agent—Total Apps—had long aided 21 the Day family in its efforts to conceal the proceeds of fraudulent schemes.
22 Total Apps also corresponded with Wealth Assistants about concealing the 23 fraudulent proceeds of the accounts at issue. Indeed, upon information and 24 belief, Total Apps orchestrated those concealment efforts while acting as Wells
25 Fargo's agent.
26
27
28

1 223. Bank of America froze some of Wealth Assistants' bank accounts in
2 November of 2022, which was publicly available information because Wealth
3 Assistants filed a complaint in federal court against Bank of America when the 4 accounts were frozen.

6 224. In or around November of 2022—the same month Wealth Assistants'
7 bank accounts were frozen at Bank of America—several Precision Trading
8 Group bank accounts were opened at Wells Fargo.

10 225. In January of 2023, a new Precision Trading Group bank account was 11 opened at Wells Fargo, which had an account number ending in -2209.

13 226. Upon information and belief, Precision Trading Group, LLC did not 14 have a website and exhibited no signs of any legitimate business activity.
15

16 227. Wealth Assistants received a cashier's check from Bank of America for 17 more than $3.7 million in January of 2023 and cashed that cashier's check at a
18 Wells Fargo branch. That money from that cashier's check was then deposited 19 into the -2209 account.

21 228. Upon information and belief, receiving a $3.7 million cashier's check
22 caused Wells Fargo to perform increased additional due diligence regarding the 23 Precision Trading Group bank accounts and discover the fraudulent scheme.
24

25 229. Precision Trading Group's account activity exhibited many red flags.
26 For example, the account ending in -2209 accepted large wire transfers from 27 many members of the putative class in large, round, similar amounts (often 28

1 $55,000). The memorandums of those wire transfers often indicated that they
2 were intended as investments in the business opportunity Wealth Assistants
3 was offering.

5 230. In total, the -2209 account accepted more than 200 wire transfers
6 totaling more than $11. Upon information and belief, the vast majority of those
7 wire transfers were from Wealth Assistants' clients.

9 231. Many of the confirmations for those wire transfers stated that the 10 purpose of the payment was to purchase an Amazon store from Wealth
11 Assistants.
12

13 232. Shortly after receiving the wire transfers from the members of the 14 putative class, the -2209 account would transfer the money—often in very 15 large transfers—to the Human Defendants, the Alter Ego Defendants, or other 16 accounts controlled by Wealth Assistants via large wire transfers. Often, the 17 wire transfers would falsely state that the holder of the account was the 18 individual Max K. Day (even though the -2209 account was supposedly an 19 entity account held by Precision Trading Group). For example, on April 3, 20 2023, the -2209 account wired $600,000 to an account held by “Carroll 21 Enterprises LLC” at Thread Bank, and the wire transfer stated (falsely) that the 22 debtor in the transaction was “Max K. Day.” The memorandum for that 23 transfer stated “christine ops.”
25
26
27
28

233. The account statements for of the -2209 for the months of January, February and March 2023 are shown below:

1 234. The Precision Trading Group bank accounts’ activity strongly exhibited
2 most of the red flags that banks are required to search for and review pursuant
3 to the FFIEC BSA/AML Examination Manual discussed above.

5 235. Upon information and belief, Wells Fargo did manually review activity
6 in the Precision Trading Group Accounts because of those red flags, and 7 reviewing that activity caused Wells Fargo to know that the accounts were 8 fraudulently concealing assets from Wealth Assistants’ creditors.

10 236. On July 12, 2023, Wealth Assistants initiated an electronic ACH
11 payment for $18,640 to a Wells Fargo bank account called “Wise US Inc” (a 12 payment processor sponsored by Wells Fargo). The summary of the
13 transaction stated “Wise US Inc. | Payroll.” On July 18, 2023, Wise US Inc.
14 rejected the $18,640 electronic payment for an unstated reason.

17 237.

18 238. Likewise, on July 21, 2023, the Wells Fargo bank account called “Wise 19 US Inc.” rejected a payment of $6,003.52 that Wealth Assistants attempted to 20 send it for an unstated reason.

23 239. Wells Fargo received numerous wire-reversal requests—which 24 contained descriptions of the Wealth Assistants fraudulent scheme—from 25 Wealth Assistants’ clients. Those requests requested reversals of payments the 26 clients had made to the accounts listed above. Wells Fargo failed to respond to 27 many of those wire reversal requests or unduly delayed responding to them.
28

1 For example, on October 12, 2023, a bank called Navy Federal sent Wells
2 Fargo an urgent request to recall a wire transfer to the account at Wells Fargo
3 ending in -2209 because Navy Federal's client reported that Wealth Assistants
4 was a scam. Navy Federal followed up with Wells Fargo regarding its urgent
5 request on October 13, October 20, and October 23. On October 26, 2023,
6 Wells Fargo finally responded to Navy Federal by stating that it could not
7 reverse the wire transfer because there were no funds left in the Wealth
8 Assistants account at Wells Fargo (notably, Wells Fargo did not deny that 9 Wealth Assistants was a scam).

13 240. But the only reason that there were no significant funds left in the -2209
14 account is because, on October 13, 2023, the account had transferred $630,000
15 to the law firm Lloyd Mousilli with a wire memorandum stating "WA client 16 setup fee funds."

18 241. Incredibly, Wells Fargo continued operating many of the other Precision
19 Trading Group accounts, which Wealth Assistants continued to use to conceal
20 the proceeds of its fraudulent scheme. For example, when Wells Fargo told
21 Navy Federal that there were no assets left in the -2209 Precision Trading
22 Group account, there were still more than $100,000 in the Precision Trading
23 Group account with an account number ending in -7394, and Wells Fargo
24 continued operating that account.
26
27
28

1 242. Many of Wells Fargo’s own clients were themselves clients of Wealth
2 Assistants and asked Wells Fargo to reverse wire transfers they had made to
3 the -2209 account. Wells Fargo spoke to those clients about Wealth Assistants’
4 fraudulent activities but still failed to reverse the wire transfers, and still failed
5 to stop operating the bank accounts that were being used to further Wealth
6 Assistants’ fraudulent activity.

9 243. Counsel for Plaintiffs sent Wells Fargo multiple letters describing 10 Wealth Assistants’ fraudulent scheme, and informing Wells Fargo that 11 Precision Trading was part of the fraudulent scheme, from January through 12 May of 2024.

14 244. Moreover, even when Wells Fargo received an asset freeze order from 15 this Court, Wells Fargo refused to take any immediate action to ensure that it
16 did not participate in a violation of the court order or in further fraudulent
17 activity in the accounts at issue. It instead stated “the bank will not be 18 enjoining or freezing any of the accounts of the jurisdictional defendants” as 19 shown below:

2 to me, Rory.D.Zamansky, Michael.Lipsitz, David.Pinch ▾
3 Dear Mr. Banks:
4 Please know that Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. has received the temporary restraining
5 order that you forwarded this afternoon. The bank appreciates receiving the copy
6 of the order. I have reviewed its terms. The order is directed only at specific 7 defendants within the jurisdiction of California (which the court has deemed the 8 "jurisdictional defendants") and not Wells Fargo or any other bank. The 9 defendants are enjoined from dispersing or removing funds with the monthly
10 exception that each human may draw $9000 per month for living expenses.
11 The order does not direct Wells Fargo to take any action or otherwise to monitor
12 the accounts. The bank does not have a means to freeze an account and monitor 13 a withdrawal limit of $9000 per month per human.
14 Please let us know the outcome of the April 19, 2024, hearing on the preliminary 15 injunction. In the meantime, the bank will not be enjoining or freezing any of the 16 accounts of the jurisdictional defendants. The court has not ordered the bank to 17 take that action.

22 vii. First Citizens Bank's Knowledge Of And Substantial Participation
23 In The Payment Processing Strategy

24 245. First Citizens Bank has operated bank accounts held by an entity called 25 "Providence Oak Properties," since at least as early as May 1, 2022. Those 26 accounts had account numbers ending in -1286, -3241, and -3348. The address
27 for all of those accounts was Max K. Day's home address.

28 246. Providence Oak Properties held itself out to the public as a construction company owned and operated by an individual named Kurt Odom.

1 247. However, Providence Oak Properties was, in reality, in the business of
2 using its bank account at First Citizens Bank to help criminals in money
3 laundering activities.

5 248. Specifically, Providence Oak Properties used its First Citizens bank
6 account to accept illegally procured money into its own custody. First Citizens
7 Bank did not keep records of many of the deposits into the account, which 8 blatantly violated the bank's most basic record keeping, BSA, and anti money
9 laundering obligations.

11 249. For example, from January through August of 2023, more than a million
12 dollars per month flowed into the Providence Oak Properties account ending in 13 -1286 via transactions that the account statements dubbed "Merchant Service
14 Merch Dep 9106," "Merchant Service Merch Dep
15 5805," or "Merchant Service Merch Dep 2370." First
16 Citizens Bank does not have records for many of those transactions. It knows
17 that the -9106, -5805, and -2370 accounts are not First Citizens Bank accounts,
18 but First Citizens Bank cannot tell what the full account number is or what 19 bank custodies those accounts.
22

23 250. After receiving that money from unknown sources, First Citizens Bank
24 used wire transfers to transfer that money to a different bank account to help
25 conceal its origins. Thus, Providence Oak Properties served as one of the 26 "intermediaries" in Wealth Assistants' Payment Processing Strategy; it 27
28

1 received funds for the benefit of Wealth Assistants only to transfer those funds
2 to other accounts controlled by Wealth Assistants.

3 251. Incredibly, almost all of Providence Oak Properties’ outgoing wire
4 transfers since May of 2022 have included in the wire memorandums a
5 sentence similar to: “Invoice amount of [dollar amount] paid by [name of 6 beneficiary] on [date]. Funds of [dollar amount] returned after fees were 7 removed as agreed upon.”

10 252. Providence Oak Properties made no attempt to conceal its money
11 laundering activities from First Citizens—and instead bluntly described those 12 activities in the wire memorandums—because First Citizens was aware of the 13 money laundering activities and chose to assist with them.
14

15 253. First Citizens Bank knew that the Providence Oak Properties bank
16 account was being used to launder and conceal illegally procured money.

18 254. Wealth Assistants and its principals referred to Providence Oak
19 Properties, euphemistically, as a “payment processing” business (even though
20 Providence Oak Properties had no payment processing license and instead 21 served as an illegal intermediary in money laundering activities).

24 * * *

25 255. As discussed above, in the beginning of 2023, Wealth Assistants was 26 experiencing difficulties related to its Payment Processing Strategy, in part
27 because Bank of America had recently frozen some of Wealth Assistants’ bank
28

1 accounts. As a result, Wealth Assistants could not accept payments from many
2 individuals that Wealth Assistants had convinced to purchase the business
3 opportunity that Wealth Assistants was offering.

5 256. To help fix that problem, Wealth Assistants purchased Providence Oak
6 Properties from Kurt Odom around June of 2023, and Wealth Assistants then
7 used Providence Oak Properties to alleviate the bottlenecks in Wealth
8 Assistants' Payment Processing Strategy.

10 257. Wealth Assistants used the Providence Oak Properties bank account as 11 an intermediary in Wealth Assistants' Payment Processing Strategy. That is, 12 Wealth Assistants would transfer money to Providence Oak Properties, and 13 then transfer the money from Providence Oak Properties to Wealth Assistants'
14 other accounts.
16

17 H. The Human Defendants All Conspired To Carry Out The Fraud
18 Described Above

19 258. Defendant Ryan Carroll is the Chief Executive Officer of Wealth
20 Assistants. He participated in the conspiracy described above in the following
21 ways:
22

- 23 a. Ryan Carroll claims that he founded Wealth Assistants and led the 24 company's growth.
25
26 b. Ryan Carroll used videos of himself to recruit new clients for Wealth
27 Assistants. Those videos included intentionally false statements. For 28 example, he stated in those recorded videos that Wealth Assistants'

1 stores could be expected to generate more than $10,000 in profits per 2 month.

3 c. Ryan Carroll fraudulently transferred money from Wealth Assistants to 4 himself and used that money for personal gain. For example, Carroll
5 stated on social media that he had purchased a Lamborghini.

7 d. Ryan Carroll is the founder and owner of Defendant Yax Ecommerce
8 LLC, which did business as “Wealth Assistants LLC.”

10 e. Carroll is also the owner of WA Amazon Seller LLC and the manager
11 of the North Carolina branch of Defendant WA Distribution LLC, both 12 of which collected payments from Wealth Assistants’ victims on behalf
13 of Wealth Assistants.
14

15 f. Carroll also created the company Daddy Jules LLC which, upon
16 information and belief, serves the sole purpose of concealing Ryan
17 Carroll’s personal assets.
18

19 g. Carroll is also the owner of Dreams to Reality LLC, which is an owner
20 of Defendant Yax Ecommerce LLC. Upon information and belief, the 21 sole purpose of Dreams to Reality LLC is to serve as an alter ego for 22 Ryan Carroll to make it more difficult for victims of Wealth Assistants

26 259. Max K. Day is an owner of Wealth Assistants. He participated in the 27 conspiracy described above in the following ways:
28

- 1 a. Max K. Day formed and managed Defendant Precision Trading
2 Group, LLC. According to Precision Trading Group’s corporate
3 registration, it operated under the “assumed names” of “Wealth
4 Assistants LLC,” “WA Distribution, LLC,” “WA Brand Management,
5 LLC,” and “WA Amazon Seller, LLC” beginning on December 14,
6 2022. Precision Trading accepted payments on behalf of Wealth
7 Assistants from many Wealth Assistants clients.
10 b. Max K. Day is the Director of Defendant Providence Oak Properties,
11 LLC. Providence Oak Properties, LLC accepted payments on behalf of 12 Wealth Assistants from many of Wealth Assistants’ clients. A
13 representative of Wealth Assistants stated, “Providence Oak Properties is 14 a part of Wealth Assistants.”
15
16
17 c. Ryan Carroll described Max K. Day as his “mentor” and “business
18 partner” in starting and managing Wealth Assistants.
19
20 d. Max K. Day represented to one or more of Wealth Assistants’ clients
21 that they would receive a refund on their store. When he made that 22 representation to Wealth Assistants’ client Dominic Camany in 23 September of 2023, Max K. Day knew that it was not true, and in fact
24 Camany never received a refund.
25
26 e. Max K. Day aided and abetted the fraudulent scheme at issue by drawing
27 on his past experiences in fraudulently transferring assets. For example,
28

1 in 1992, Max K. Day agreed to injunctive relief after being charged by
2 the Federal Trade Commission with operating a fraudulent credit card
3 scheme. Likewise, in 2006, Max K. Day and his family ran a fraudulent
4 enterprise called “Today’s Destiny.” Today’s Destiny—much like the 5 fraudulent scheme at issue in this case—lured victims by promising to 6 make them rich if they paid for the business opportunity Today’s
7 Destiny was offering. Today’s Destiny took money from its victims and 8 did not provide the promised services. The Days then transferred the 9 money collected by Today’s Destiny to themselves, and they had 10 Today’s Destiny declare bankruptcy. The United States Trustee for 11 Today’s Destiny brought an adversary complaint against the Days for 12 their fraudulent transfers.
15
16

17 f. Max K. Day also created each of the following entities, which are 18 defendants in this case: MKD Investment Advisor, LLC; MKD
19 Family Beneficiary, LLC; MKD Family Private Management
20 Company, LLC; Max Day Consulting, LLC; HouTex Farm Equity
21 Partners LLC; Business Financial Solutions Advisory LLC; and Evo
22 Maxx LLC. Upon information and belief, Max K. Day created those 23 entities for the sole purpose of concealing his assets, including 24 concealing proceeds of the fraudulent scheme described above.
26
27
28

1 260. Defendant Max O. Day was the Chief Growth Officer at Wealth
2 Assistants. He participated in the conspiracy described above in the following
3 ways:

- 4 a. As discussed above, Wealth Assistants' recruited intermediaries to 5 accept payments on behalf of Wealth Assistants' clients and then pay
6 that money to other bank accounts associated with Wealth Assistants or 7 its principals. Wealth Assistants used those intermediaries to make it
8 more difficult for its victims to track where their money had gone once
9 the victims realized they had been defrauded. Max O. Day asked an 10 individual named Zach Henson of Mint Solutions to serve as an 11 intermediary for Wealth Assistants.
12
13 b. Max O. Day often stated that online stores managed by Wealth
14 Assistants would likely earn tens of thousands of dollars per month.
15 Many of Wealth Assistants' clients relied on Max O. Day's statements
16 when deciding to purchase the business opportunity Wealth Assistants
17 was selling. For example, in or around August of 2023, Max O. Day
18 helped convince an individual named Craig Dillehay to purchase the 19 business opportunity Wealth Assistants was offering, in part by telling 20 Dillehay that stores Wealth Assistants was managing were very
21 profitable. Max O. Day also helped convince an individual named Korey
24
25
26
27
28

1 McAleesejergins to purchase the business opportunity Wealth Assistants
2 was offering by making similar statements.

3 c. Like his uncle Max K. Day, Max O. Day brought to Wealth Assistants
4 his experience with similar fraudulent schemes and fraudulent transfers.
5 He, like his uncle, helped perpetrate the “Today’s Destiny” fraud
6 described above.

8 d. Max O. Day created the entity Defendant Yax IP and Management
9 LLC. Upon information and belief, that entity was an alter ego for the 10 other Wealth Assistants Entity Defendants, and it served no purpose
11 other than helping Defendants conceal the proceeds of the fraudulent
12 scheme from Defendants’ creditors.

15 261. Defendant Michael Day was another owner of Wealth Assistants and 16 provided financing for the company knowing that it was a fraudulent scheme.
17 He also made false statements to many of Wealth Assistants’ clients that they
18 relied upon when deciding to purchase the business opportunities Wealth
19 Assistants offered. For example, on October 12, 2022, Michael Day told 20 Wealth Assistants’ former client Haider Istambouli, “we have developed a 72
21 point SOP protocol that virtually eliminates any possibility for deactivations or 22 suspensions,” when in fact Michael Day knew that Amazon stores that Wealth
23 Assistants set up were frequently deactivated or suspended for not complying 24 with Amazon’s policies. Moreover, Michael Day co-owns WWKB LLC, 25
26
27
28

1 which is an owner of Yax Ecommerce LLC. Michael Day was also one of the
2 perpetrators of the Today's Destiny fraud described above.

3 262. Defendant Jared Day was another Wealth Assistants employee who 4 intentionally made false statements to many of Wealth Assistants' clients. For 5 example, he told Wealth Assistants' former clients Afshin Salehi and Michael 6 Whitten that they would likely be earning more than $10,000 in profits per
7 month one year after they purchased the business opportunity Wealth
8 Assistants was offering. He made similar statements to Isabel Ramos.
9 Moreover, like the other Defendants who are members of the Day family, Jared
10 Day was a central perpetrator of the Today's Destiny fraud, and he used his 11 past experience in perpetrating frauds to assist with the Wealth Assistants
12 fraudulent scheme.

13 263. Defendant Matthew Crouch was the President of Wealth Assistants
14 beginning sometime in 2022 and continuing until October of 2023. He 15 participated in the conspiracy described above in the following ways:

16 e. Crouch told many of Wealth Assistants' clients that Wealth Assistants
17 was a prudent investment and that most of Wealth Assistants' clients
18 were very satisfied with their investments.

19 f. Crouch guaranteed Wealth Assistants' former clients that they would be 20 able to exercise their buyback guarantees.

1 g. Crouch told many of Wealth Assistants' clients that Wealth Assistants
2 would supply their stores with inventory if the clients paid the invoices

5 264. Defendant Christine Carroll served as Wealth Assistants' Finance
6 Manager. Upon information and belief, she had access to Wealth Assistants'
7 bank accounts, and she initiated many fraudulent transfers from the Wealth
8 Assistants Entity Defendants. Upon information and belief, she was also in 9 charge of maintaining Wealth Assistants' accounting records, and creating and 10 sending invoices. Upon information and belief, she also monitored Wealth
11 Assistants financial accounts and records to help ensure that the assets were 12 concealed from Wealth Assistants' creditors and that the accounts were not
13 drawing scrutiny from government regulators. She performed those tasks
14 knowing that Wealth Assistants was operating the fraudulent scheme described
16
17
18

19 265. Defendant Troy Marchand is the owner of Quantum Ecommerce. He 20 has directed Quantum Ecommerce's conduct described above and aided in that 21 conduct. Upon information and belief, he is also the sole control person of 22 Quantum Ecommerce.
24

25 266. Marchand is also the owner and director of all of the following entities,
26 all of which are alter egos of Quantum Ecommerce: Quantum Health, LLC;
27 Quantum Staffing, LLC; Quantum Distribution, LLC; Quantum Ecommerce, 28

1 LLC; Quantum Ecom, LLC; Quantum Capital Group, LLC; and Quantum
2 Marketing, LLC.

3 267. In 2021, Marchand was permanently barred from serving as a
4 stockbroker or investment advisor after he settled charges brought by the
5 Securities and Exchange Commission alleging that he defrauded investors.

7 268. Defendant Bonnie Nichols is a co-owner of Wholesale Universe. Bonnie
8 Nichols is Wholesale Universe's sole control person. She has directed
9 Wholesale Universe's conduct described above and aided in that conduct.
10

11 269. Defendant Travis Marker is the owner and control person of Marker
12 Law and Parlay Law Group. He directed those entities conduct, as described 13 above.
14

15 270. Defendant Rey Pasinli is the owner and control person of Total-Apps.
16 He directed that entity's conduct, as described above.

18 CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS
19

20 271. Plaintiffs bring this class action pursuant to: (1) Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(a), 21 and (2) either Rule 23(b)(1) (which allows a class to be certified only if 22 adjudicating the matters individually would create a risk of inconsistent 23 adjudications or adjudications that impede other class members' rights) or, 24 alternatively, Rule 23(b)(3) (which allows a class to be certified only if issues
25 common to the class predominate over individualized issues and a class 26 method of adjudication is superior to other available methods).
27
28

1 272. Class Definition: Plaintiffs bring an action on behalf of a proposed 2 class of all persons who:

- 3 h. purchased services relating to the setup or management of an online
4 store from the Wealth Assistants Entity Defendants between June of 5 2021 and November of 2023;
7 i. did not make a profit on their purchase of that business opportunity; and 8
9 j. have never been owners, employees, legal representatives, or successors
10 of the Wealth Assistants Entity Defendants.

11 273. Numerosity and Superiority: More than 600 individuals fall within the 12 proposed Class Definition. As a result, a class action is superior to other
13 methods of adjudicating the claims of the putative class members; litigating 14 their claims individually would be impractical.
15
16

17 274. Commonality and Predominance: The issues common to the class—
18 which predominate over issues not common to the class—include:

- 19 k. whether Defendants agreed with each other to either (1) operate Wealth
20 Assistants to take assets from Plaintiffs based on false representations, or 21 (2) conceal the assets that Wealth Assistants illegally procured to the 22 detriment of Wealth Assistants' creditors;
23
24 l. whether Wealth Assistants included in its marketing materials—which
25 were shared with nearly all of Wealth Assistants' clients to induce them
26 to purchase the business opportunity Wealth Assistants was offering—
27
28

- 1 statements that were not true, or omitted to state material facts about that
2 business opportunity necessary to make statements made not misleading;
4 m. whether those misstatements or omissions were material;
6 n. whether Defendants knew or should have known that those statements
7 were not true;
9 o. whether those misrepresentations and omissions—such as the 10 representation that the business opportunities Wealth Assistants was 11 offering were profitable—were necessarily relied upon by any individual
12 who purchased the business opportunity Wealth Assistants was offering;
13
14 p. whether the Alter Ego Defendants are their owners’ alter egos;
15
16 q. whether the Wealth Assistants Entity Defendants and Proficient Supply
17 LLC are each others’ alter egos;
18
19 r. whether the Wealth Assistants Entity Defendants transferred money to or 20 for the benefit of others without receiving a reasonably equivalent value
21 in exchange and, if so, to whom Wealth Assistants made those transfers.

22 275. Typicality: Like all of the proposed class members, Plaintiffs seek to
23 recover the financial losses they suffered because of Wealth Assistants’
24 misrepresentations regarding the business opportunities sold to them and 25 Defendants’ subsequent concealment of assets.
26
27
28

1 276. Adequacy of Representation: Plaintiffs are members of the class and
2 will fairly and adequately represent and protect its interests. Plaintiffs have no
3 interests contrary to or in conflict with the interests of other class members.

5 277. Nico Banks and Richard Nervig are competent and experienced
6 attorneys representing Plaintiffs.

8 278. Risk of Inconsistent Or Impeding Adjudications: Prosecuting
9 separate actions by individual class members would create a risk of 10 inconsistent or varying adjudications that would establish incompatible
11 standards of conduct for at least one party opposing the class.
12

13 279. Moreover, adjudications with respect to individual class members
14 would, as a practical matter, substantially impair the ability of other members 15 to protect their interests because of the limited assets that may be available to 16 remedy harms done to Plaintiffs in this case.

18 CAUSES OF ACTION

19 COUNT ONE

20 CIVIL CONSPIRACY TO DEFRAUD PLAINTIFFS AND CONCEAL
21 ASSETS

22 (AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS)
23

24 280. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference all allegations above.

25 281. The elements of fraud are a misrepresentation, knowledge of its falsity,
26 intent to defraud, justifiable reliance, and resulting damage.
28

1 282. To establish the element of conspiracy, a plaintiff must show (1)
2 formation and operation of the conspiracy; (2) wrongful act or acts done
3 pursuant thereto; and (3) resulting damage.

5 283. All defendants except Bank of America and First Citizens BancShares
6 conspired to misrepresent business opportunities to Plaintiffs in an effort to 7 induce Plaintiffs to send those defendants money pursuant to false pretenses.

9 284. Defendants overtly acted in furtherance of that conspiracy.

10 285. Defendants knew of the falsity of the misrepresentations to Plaintiffs.

11 286. Plaintiffs relied on those misrepresentations when purchasing services or 12 goods from Wealth Assistants.

14 287. Moreover, all Defendants conspired to conceal the assets obtained via 15 the above-mentioned fraudulent scheme from Wealth Assistants' creditors.
16 They did so, in part, by transferring assets between different bank accounts
17 held by the Wealth Assistants Entity Defendants, Proficient Supply LLC, or the 18 Quantum-Wholesale Partnership to the others when the recipients of the 19 transfers did not provide Wealth Assistants anything of comparable value in 20 exchange.
22

23 288. Defendants agreed with each other to make the transfers in order to 24 prevent Wealth Assistants' current and future creditors, including Plaintiffs,
25 from collecting those assets.
26
27
28

1 289. When making that agreement to transfer assets, Defendants knew that
2 the Wealth Assistants Entity Defendants had debts beyond their ability to pay
3 as they became due.

5 290. Defendants did in fact transfer funds from Wealth Assistants in the 6 manner described above, directly or indirectly.

7 291. The transfers harmed Plaintiffs, in part because the transfers caused
8 Wealth Assistants to be undercapitalized and ultimately to go out of business,
9 rendering it unable to pay any judgment that may be entered against it.

10
11 292. Plaintiffs suffered damages as a result of the acts performed pursuant to 12 the conspiracy.

16 AIDING AND ABETTING A FRAUD

17
18 (AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS)

19 293. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference all allegations above.

20
21 294. Defendants had knowledge that the Wealth Assistants Entity Defendants
22 were engaged in the fraudulent scheme described above.

23 295. Defendants substantially assisted in that fraudulent scheme, either by 24 assisting in the making of fraudulent misrepresentations or assisting in the 25 concealment of assets.
26

28 COUNT THREE

1 FRAUDULENTLY TRANSFER OF ASSETS
2 (AGAINST THE ALTER EGO DEFENDANTS, THE QUANTUM-
3 WHOLESALE PARTNERSHIP, BONNIE NICHOLS, AND TROY
4 MARCHAND — COLLECTIVELY, THE “RECIPIENT DEFENDANTS”)

5 296. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference all allegations above.

6 297. Upon information and belief, the Recipient Defendants received
7 payments from the other Defendants.

9 298. Upon information and belief, the non-Recipient Defendants transferred
10 assets to the Recipient Defendants when the non-Recipient Defendants knew 11 that they were insolvent.
12

13 299. The non-Recipient Defendants made those transfers with the intent to 14 hinder, delay or defraud Plaintiffs.
15

16 300. Those transfers by the non-Recipient Defendants were a substantial
17 factor in rendering Plaintiffs unable to collect upon debts that Wealth
18 Assistants owes them.

20 COUNT FOUR

21 AIDING AND ABETTING A BREACH OF FIDUCIARY DUTY
22
23 (AGAINST WELLS FARGO BANK, N.A.; BANK OF AMERICA; AND 24 FIRST CITIZENS BANK)

25 301. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference all allegations above.

26 302. At all relevant times, Wealth Assistants owed a fiduciary duty to 27 Plaintiffs because it sold them a business opportunity that Wealth Assistants
28

1 purported to have expertise in, and Wealth Assistants understood that Plaintiffs
2 did not have expertise in the business opportunity. The fiduciary duties
3 included the duty to act in Plaintiffs' best interests.

5 303. Wealth Assistants breached its fiduciary duties to Plaintiffs by failing to 6 act in their best interests. For example, Wealth Assistants failed to purchase
7 inventory for Plaintiffs stores, market the stores, or—in some cases—set up the 8 stores in the first place, and Wealth Assistants instead fraudulently transferred

11 304. Moreover, when a corporation is insolvent or nearing insolvency, the 12 corporation owes fiduciary duties to its creditors to properly wind down the 13 corporation.

15 305. Wealth Assistants also breached its fiduciary duties to Plaintiffs—who 16 were its creditors—by failing to properly wind itself down. In particular, while 17 it knew it was insolvent, Wealth Assistants made payments to its principals 18 instead of preserving its assets for payments to its creditors, including 19 Plaintiffs.

22 306. Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., Bank of America, and First Citizens Bank
23 knowingly helped Wealth Assistants breach its fiduciary duty to Plaintiffs by 24 helping Wealth Assistants transfer Plaintiffs' investments to Wealth Assistants'
25 principals.
